Dr. Russell Abell, of St. Louis, Mo, formerly of this city, and Mrs. Julia Estilli, formerly Miss Julia Davenport, of this city, were married in St. Louis last week.

Our first real winter weather set in Wednesday. It snowed the greater portion of Wednesday and Thursday and yesterday morning the mercury stood at zero.

A force of coopers was set to work at Messrs, E. H. Taylor, Jr., Co.'s shops last week, making barrels pre-paratory to starting up the O. F. C. and Carlisle Distilleries for the season.

The out-going City Council will hold a meeting on Friday evening next to settle up all outstanding accounts con-tracted by them. Have your accounts approved and hand them in to the City Clerk.

Mr. Sanford Eghert, who was stab-bed several weeks ago by Thos. Dob-son, colored, is reported to have grown a great deal worse in the last few days, and is now lying in a critical condition at the residence of his father-in-law, Mr. Ellas Stone, in this county.

Dr. A. Goldsteln, the celebrated occulist, is stopping at the Capital Hotel, and will remain until Wednesday next. We would advise all times desiring their eyes examined and litted with the best quality of spectacles to call and see him at once. After that time he can be addressed at his home office, 620 West Wainut street, Louisville, 55%

MIss Georgia Towson, daughter of Mr. Ben Towson, of Lawrenceburg, a young lady who has many friends. In thisetty, was married in Daville Wed-nesday of last week to Mr. S. E. Booth, of Lawrenceburg.

The little orphan child left by the late Jas. H. Cline and wife seems to be just now a bone of contention between the families of its parents. The brothers of Mr. Cline, who reside in North Middleton, in Bourbon county, and Messrs. Todd, of Belle Polat, brothers of the late Mrs. Cline, both calini the right to the possession of the child and have gone into the Bourbon County Court to have the matter settled. The child will inherit its mother's interest in the Todd estate in this county. county.

We have had a great improvement in the leadth of our children by the use of Swift's Specific. We had among the children's some who had scrofuln—notably one case in which it was UNMSTAKAMLY HEREDITARY. We got some of Swift's Specific and gave it to this case, and in a short while it was curved sound and well. It was had been succeeded to have the same with no permanent relief. We have been giving it to all the children as a health tonic. We have four children and one seamstress, who, for years have suffered intensely every spring with crystepias, and though they had been taking Swift's Specific only indicated the supplemental of the supplemental of the complaint. A young hady of the institution, who has been with as for years, has been troubled with a most argravated rash ever since sine was a child. Sie tried all the known remedies that are present as been curred by taking Swift's Specific, and has had no return of the trouble.

PIANOS AND ORGANS! --- EASY TERMS!

In buying a Piano or Organ many persons have the idea that they must pay all cash. There are thousands of families who have an income of fifty to one hundred dollars per mouth, who can easily spare from five to ten dollars of it and scarcely miss it. To all such we would say, do not wait to lay up enough to pay for an instrument before buying, but see or write us at once for our terms. We will satisfy you that we are giving easier terms than any Music House in the United States.

FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 20, 1884.

Mal, H. T. Stanton returned Monday afternoon from his trip to Wash-ligton and New York. He reports that while in Washington Sonate Jos. Blackbarn showed him a pile of 1,500 letters from persons seeking office, which he had not had time to open.

On Saturday night a thief prized open a shutter of a back window of the grocery of Mr. L. Tobin, rulsed the window, went in and carried off three dollars in change, which was left in the the cash drawer, and some pecket knives. This is the second or third time the store has been burglarized in the best few years.

Mr. W. 8. Dehoney went to Louis-ville Monday morning, forgot to leave his store key and his clerk could not get in, and as a consequence the store was closed all day. His friends were uneasy about hin, as no one seemed to know what was the matter; but he turned up all right at 8 o'clock that night.

The State Library was entered St The State Library was entered Sunday morning, between one and five o'clock by a thief, who stole an overcat and $70 belonging to Mr. Blanford, the outgoing Assistant Librarian, an overcost belonging to the incoming Assistant Librarian, Mr. Peters, and three or four dollars worth of postage stamps belonging to the State An entrance was effected through a window.

When the six o'clock train came in Friday evening the Adams express wagon was standing in the usual place by the side of the track, when the by the slde of the track, when the switch engine came up on the slde track and frightened the horse, caus-ing him to to shy to one slde, when the wagon was caught between the two engines and completely wrecked. Mr. Will Sheehan, the driver, was sitting in the wagon and was thrown to the ground, but fortunately he and the horse escaped serious injury.

On Monday night Mr. Junies James, a tailor in the employ of Messrs Hud-son & Meagher, better known as Jesse James, while under the influence of liquor, went to the south end of the St. Clair street bridge, ellined out on to the bufform used to store flooring plank pintform used to store flooring plank for the bridge and in the darkness for the bridge and in the containess walked off the side, falling some different or twenty free to the ground below, breaking his left arm in two places and brusing himself up badly. He received medical attention promptly and although some skrity years of age is getting along splendidly.

On Saturday night four negro men-ral-sed a row in the smoking car of the six o'clock passenger train just before it reached Ducker Station, drew their pistols and flourished them around, frightening an Italian woman and her children very badly. Mr. Sam, Harris, who was in the car, pulled the bell rope, stopped incertain, and when the con-ductor came in staced the case to bim and pointed outmen. When the negroes-found they were about to be ejected from the car they gathered around Mr. Harris, saying they were only footling, from the cut they gathered around Mr. Harris, saying they were only fooling, and in the confusion one of them cut his watch chain and stole his gold watch. They were put off the cuts at Dacker's, and shortly after the train pulled out Mr. Harris discovered his sess. He returned to this city Monday morning Informed the police of what had happened and about two o'clock Mr. Class. Nooman arrested John Jowers, a negro unan, who, until recently, has been employed at the Capital office, with the watch in his possession. Mr. Harris identified him as one of the party, and he is now hoarding with Jaller Shechan, awniting the February term of the Circuit Court. term of the Circuit Court.

The Court House bell, whilen for the last half century, has fold the time of day, been used to call the evil doors to justice, and until the erection of the justice, and until the erection of the engline-house, to aliurn the city in case of fire, and warn our citizens of a threatened invasion during the war, whose clear, distinct tone could be heard for miles around, has at last lost heard for miles around, has at last lost its voice. Some blacksmith last week, in ringing it for some purpose, pulled so hard on the rope that it was cracked, and now its toll falls flat and dead upon the air and can scarcely be heard a square off. It is a great pity, for the old town seems fearful lonely with the voice of the town clock hushed.

No words are wanted, every sentence has its duty and is made to do it, and the light parts are given good lines and annising situations. Mr Campbell wints to strike the note of done in in a clientific and well-written play.—V. V. Grophic.
